Objective:-

The establishment of the Women Development Cell (WDC), is indeed a landmark achievement of the college in pursuance of the policies of women empowerment within the college and outside. To create social awareness about the problems of women and in particular regarding gender discrimination. To assert the importance of spiritual, economic, social, racial and gender equality. It incorporates the women's policy in general to promote the well being of the female students, teaching and non-teaching women staff of the college. The cell is also responsible to undertake the awareness programs on gender sensitization, women rights and women empowerment.

Details of the reports :

On 26th Aug, 2022 , Women Development Cell has organized an orientation programmer to build an awareness in the girl students about 'the role of women development cell & to create social awareness about the problems of women in particular regarding gender discrimination. To honor womanhood, WDC Committee faculty members of Rajiv Gandhi College Of Arts, Commerce and Science, Vashi had called the resource person Mrs. Sheetal Satish Nikam, (Social worker and director of Go srushti,eco organics) to give awareness about the work of the women development cell committee to students & the role of the women development cell committee .

The orientation programme was inaugurated with lamp lightening by Mrs. Sheetal S. Nikam & faculty members of the women development cell . After the inauguration , WDC (Women Development Cell) incharge Asst. Professor Anita Yadav ma'am introduced the guest and felicitated her with the sapling.

understanding oneself to live a dignified and confident lifestyle. She urged the girl students to be more self-sufficient and aware as well as alert about their Rights. She explained in detail the importance of women, how she can be the change for the society. She gave the example of Rani Jijau, the lady who inculcated the respect towards females in the mind of her son, Shivaji Maharaj. Likewise, every woman should stand up for one's own dignity and teach male around us to respect women to avoid rape cases. In addition to that, she had given an example of Jhansi ki rani who depicted an Indian woman with all the responsibilities on her shoulder, who had the guts and fought with the Britishers.

She spoke extensively about the different kinds of stress and how it affects the physiological and mental state of a human body. She also addressed the girl students who develop different unwanted habits due to peer pressure, social status, etc. which contributes stress. Social media should be used in the proper and correct way. So that it will not be misused by the young generation.

To overcome stress, speaker Sheetal ma'am suggested to do regular meditation, physical exercise, and be mindful of each step they take to be a better version of themselves and change society's mindset.

She concluded the session by the statement,

“HUM HAI SHAKTI, SHAKTI KO BADHANA HAI”

Women's cell aims at empowering and orienting Women to recognize their potential and help them to attain their own stand. The aim of this orientation was to educate the WDC student members to prepare themselves for the future.

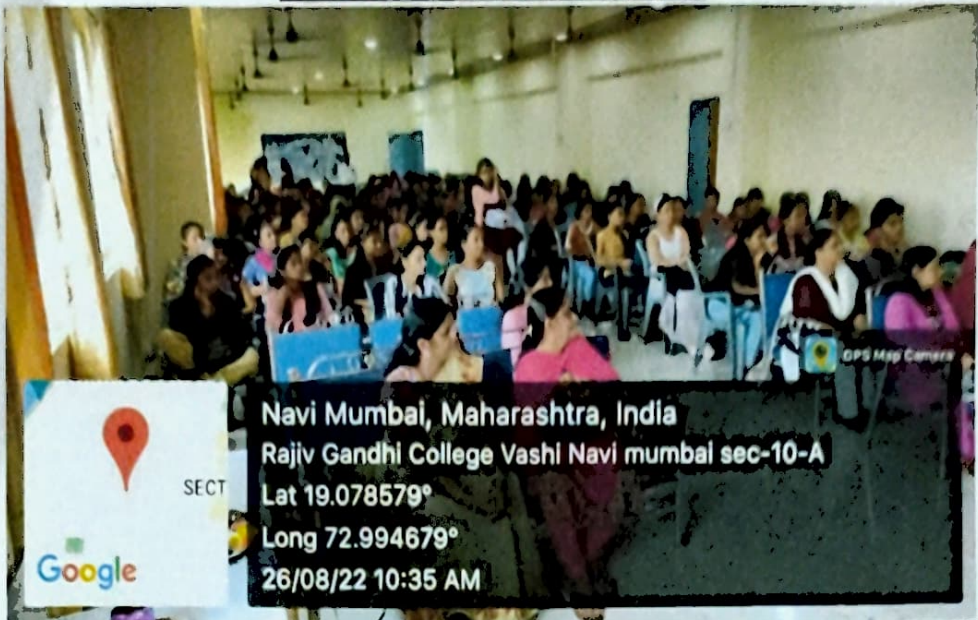

Overall the session was very interactive and motivated the students.

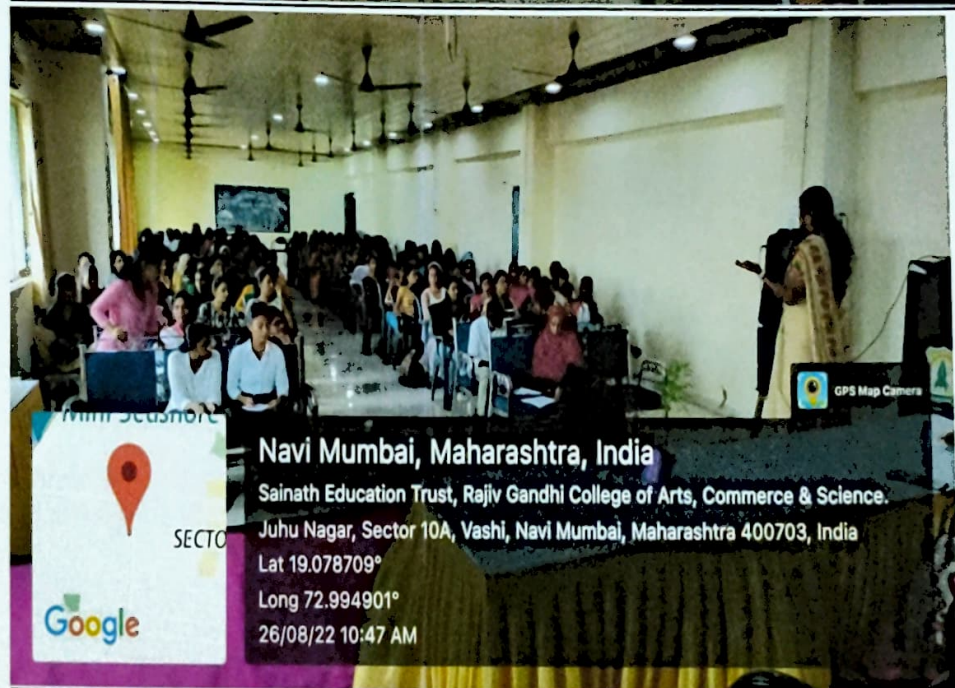

Outcome:-

1. To build an awareness in the girls students 'the role of women development cell.
2. To develop the self confidence of women and awareness about women welfare laws.
3. To create social awareness about the problems of women and in particular regarding gender discrimination.
4. To build a gender sensitive college campus.
